

PREMIUM SEATING & CORPORATE HOSPITALITY

Premium seating & corporate hospitality

Off the back of an NBL Championship, the Sydney Kings are more driven and determined than ever. The Kings have had an extremely successful season on and off the court; but we are focused to make the 22-23 season bigger and better than ever.

The Kings are known to host one of the best game-days in the competitive Sydney sporting landscape, with a high-energy, fast paced atmosphere, it is family friendly as well as exciting and professional. The corporate hospitality and premium seating experience is something that no other professional sport can provide, with seats so close to the action. What better way to experience the most exciting game day in Sydney sport, than in the best seats of Qudos Bank Arena.

We are committed to bringing another championship trophy back to the Hoops Capital, and we want you there with us! We hope that you will be there to cheer and support the Kings along to another Championship season.
